MYSTERY IN BRIDE'S DEATH

GEORGE SCHUCK AND WIFE NOW LEAD CONTEST

New Couple Take
First Place in Silver Race.

WED 25 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. George Schuck of Kankakee takes first place over Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. LaGrow, last week's leaders, in this week's tabulation of votes up to and including last Saturday in the Republican-News-Paramount theater contest to determine Kankakee county's most popular married couple celebrating their silver anniversary this year.

While it may seem from the standings printed today that the race is between a few, no contestant need consider himself out of the running entirely for several couples have made great strides toward their present position in the race and their belated rush of ballots might force them ahead in the final analysis.

Fourteen days of the contest remain before the winner will be decided and presented on March 22 with a 101 piece set of Wm. Rogers triple plate silverware selected at Volkman's jewelry store. For 12 of these days, the Republican-News will print a ballot which is good for 10 votes. These ballots are dated and must reach the Paramount theater before the expiration date. That is the only method of voting. The contest is on a strictly popular basis.

New Standings
The standings for the week ending March 6:

Mr. and Mrs. George Schuck, Kankakee, 27,540; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. LaGrow, Kankakee, 24,380; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur DuBois, Kankakee, 21,720; Mr. and Mrs. Horace D. Benoit, Bourbonnais, 16,900; Mr. and Mrs. Millard Calvert, Kankakee, 15,140; Mr. and Mrs. George Thoenig, Kankakee, 12,870; Dr. and Mrs. George Asselin, Kankakee, 12,350; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cichelli, Kankakee, 11,910; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Denoyer, Kankakee, 10,850; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nutt, Buckingham, 8,030; Mr. and Mrs. L. Frank Tumble, Kankakee, 7,040.

Chrysler Corporation Turns Down Demands of the Union

BULLETIN
Detroit, March 8.—(AP)—Richard T. Frankenstein, organizational director of the United Automobile Workers of America, announced this afternoon that strikes had been called in all major units of the Chrysler Corp. in Detroit.

The announcement climaxed a day of rapid-fire developments which included strikes in the Chevrolet Motor Co. plant at Flint, and the Hudson Motor Car Co. and the Packard Motor Car Co. in Detroit, and the refusal of Chrysler officials to recognize the U. A. W. as sole collective bargaining agency in its plants.

Affected by the Chrysler strike were the Plymouth, DeSoto, Dodge and Chrysler plants.

The main Chrysler plant in Highland Park, scene of negotiations between the union and the corporation, (U) was operating at 1:10 p. m. (U) but a company official said he understood a strike was to become effective there soon.

Aiding Damsel Expensive For A Kankakeean

Joliet, Ill., March 2.—(AP)—Emil Martin of Kankakee, Ill., told police today his efforts to assist a damsel in distress cost him $100.

He said the woman was standing beside an automobile on route 44 near Wilton Center, 15 miles south-east of here, when he passed by in a truck.

"My motor won't start. Will you help me?" Martin said she called. Martin complied, then, he said, two men with revolvers popped up in the rear seat. The motor started easily, the trio forced him, out of the car a short time later after robbing him of $100, Martin told police.

Sues Principal of School for Damages

Aledo, Ill., March 8.—(AP)—Elwood Workman, a junior high school pupil, filed suit today asking $10,000 damages against F. E. Gleize, principal of the school, alleging two paddlings by him were grounds for such action.

The suit, brought in the boy's name by his father, Robert Workman, was preceded by a warrant charging the principal with assault; this action also being based on the paddling.

The assault case has been set for hearing tomorrow before a jury. Another damage suit, seeking to recover $15 for torn clothing and $200 for doctor bills, was filed against the principal.

The paddlings took place Feb. 25, the suit claimed.

BACK FROM FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Bertrand, 529 South Washington avenue, have returned from a month's vacation in Florida.

James C. Crews' Disappearance Finally Solved

Charles Trunk Sees Remains Floating in River.

END LONG HUNT

The body of James C. Crews, 65-year old employee of the Kankakee state hospital who disappeared two months ago today, was recovered Sunday from the Kankakee river.

The body was seen floating downstream under the Washington avenue bridge by Charles Trunk, 868 South Schuyler avenue, who was walking across the bridge. He notified the fire department and police then followed the body downstream a short distance to the foot of Third avenue where it lodged in a clump of willows.

The body was recovered from this lodging place, about 50 feet out from shore, by firemen Harry Holz and Urban Bruile, using a boat, and was removed to Rehr funeral chapel.

James C. Crews' Disappearance Finally Solved

Charles Trunk Sees Remains Floating in River.

END LONG HUNT

The remains were unrecognizable. Identification was by L. H. Clark, funeral director from Watseka, a nephew by marriage, and Dr. Robert R. Smith, managing officer of the state hospital, by means of the clothing and personal effects found in the pockets.

The morning of Jan. 8, when Crews disappeared, his automobile was "pulled from deep water" at the foot of South Schuyler avenue by city firemen. For several days afterward boatmen, spurred on by a $100 reward donated by Dr. Smith and employees of the state hospital, dragged the deep water and even dynamiting was resorted to.

At that time the reward was offered providing the body was recovered within 10 days. At the end of that period the money donated by the hospital employees, totaling $115, was given to the widow.

Skull fractured
The body was fully clothed, even to rubbers and raincoat. There was a frontal fracture of the skull and the nose appeared to be broken. Crews' watch had stopped at 5:27 o'clock, supposedly the time he went into the river with his car.

Crews' car had leaped the curb at the end of Schuyler avenue, a dead-end street, crossed a narrow park separating the end of the street from the river and hurtled into the water.

Sheriff Returns Runaway Pair for Hearing Tuesday

Vernon Pray, 22, of 312 North Wabash avenue, Bradley, and Robert Rivard, 20, of 265 South Indiana avenue, today were prisoners in the county jail, ending a short lived adventure.

The accusation against them is that Rivard, son of his father's customer, collected $137 from his father's customer, when he and Pray set out to rob him. They were arrested at Rushville, Ill.

Rivard's parents had appealed to local police who asked the state highway police headquarters at Pontiac to send out a broadcast, which resulted in the arrest.

The youths were brought here late Saturday by Sheriff John Stack and Deputy Gene LaFontaine. They are to be arraigned tomorrow morning before County Judge John H. Beckers.

At Dwight the youths abandoned the Rivard car and purchased tickets for Dallas. When arrested they had $59 left, having spent a good share of their funds for bus tickets, a trunk and clothing.

British Motorship BombarDED

4 Destroyers Answer Call; Boat Sinking

Bordeaux, France, March 8.—(AP)—Four British destroyers were reported standing by a running, sinking British merchantman 90 miles out in the Bay of Biscay today after the ship had reported she was bombarded by a "vessel of unknown nationality."

A series of desperate S O S calls also sent a fleet of French fishing boats and tugs dashing to the scene, apparently in the regular ship lane between the mouth of the Gironde and Cape Ortegal.

The name of stricken ship variously was received as the "Adda," a vessel of more than 7,000 tons, or the "Ada," a much smaller ship.

The destroyers were preparing to take off passengers, late advice stated. Four French fishing boats also were reported virtually in the ship's position and authorities rushed a French destroyer from Rochefort to the scene.

Fire Raging
The latest message gave the call letters of the sinking vessel as "GJPR," which are those of the "Ada," in the African service.

They said the fire still was burning aboard the ship and that "passengers"—the number unstated—still were aboard. The ship was hit below the mainmast.

One message read: "We are lost—fire aboard—there are passengers—we ask help!"

There was no more word of the attacking vessel, presumably a participant in the intense Spanish air and sea warfare which has ravaged the broad and busy bay for months.

Reported Sinking
London, March 8.—(AP)—Four British destroyers were rushed at forced draft through the Bay of Biscay today to the point where a vessel believed to be the British motorship "Adda" sent out an S O S, reporting she had been bombarded and was sinking.

Firemen Put Out 2 Blazes Sunday

City firemen answered two fire alarms Sunday.

At 10:07 a. m. they were called to the building of R. G. Drolet, 293 East Court street, where a cabin in the second floor hallway had caught fire. It was quickly extinguished.

At 3:30 p. m. they made a run to Birch and Evergreen avenues where the auto of E. H. Phelps, colored, was ablaze. The gas tank apparently sprang a leak and the fuel in it had become ignited from the hot exhaust pipe. Damage was confined to the tank which did not explode.

Authorities of Vermont Study Young Slayers

Two Little Boys Are Held for Drowning

Young Girl.

NAMES SECRET

Windsor, Vt., March 8.—(AP)—Authorities investigating the "murder by drowning" of four-year old Beverly Ann Page planned today to send two young boys allegedly involved in the death to "a neighboring state" for thorough study by a psychiatrist.

A final decision on the plan was awaited from Gov. George D. Aiken who indicated he would approve.

"If authorities think that is the best plan," the governor said, "I will probably approve it, but I want to hear all the details."

State Attorney Alban Parker said the youngest of the two boys—one five and the other nine—told him they pushed the child into the still water of a mill pond and the older boy then jumped on her stomach. The boy related, Parker added, that he held her by the hair as she lay in the water.

Her bruised body was found Friday. Sheriff Ernest Schoenfeld described it as "murder by drowning."

Coaxes "Confession"
Sheriff Ernest H. Schoenfeld's marble-shooting skill was credited with coaxing a confession from the five-year old suspect.

The sheriff first won the boy's confidence by taking him on his knee and giving him a dime.

Brought back for a second "interview," the boy lugged along a bag of marbles, bought with the dime. "Knucks down," he said to the sheriff. The officer got to his knees and the game started. As it progressed the man and boy chatted about Beverly Ann.

The sheriff then held the girl's head under the shallow water of Mill brook Friday while a 9-year old companion jumped on her chest. Names of both boys were withheld.

Authorities were inclined to believe the boy's story, although his companion steadfastly denied knowledge of the crime. They were, however, determined to obtain a confession.

Three Foxes Find Hunters Are Tough

After fighting a losing battle for several weeks with the local breed of foxes which had developed a reputation for being "tough," sportsmen and farmers of Kankakee county who participated in the fox hunt Sunday in the Rock creek area had their efforts crowned with unusual success, bagging three of the sly creatures.

The hunters who brought down the game were H. L. Vortman of Aroma Park, Bud Young of Chebanse and Harold Forbes of Kankakee. Next Sunday morning, members of the Sportsmen's club will meet at 7 a. m. at the courthouse to prepare pens at the state hospital for pheasants. At 12:30 p. m. they will leave the courthouse for another fox drive at Exline.

He was arrested Sunday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs Gene LaFontaine and Walter Bauer at the request of Cecil "Red" Vickery, who resides on West Stone street.

Vickery, it is said, disarmed DeWeese when the latter confronted him with an automatic pistol. The defendant is at liberty under bond of $1,000.

CAR STOLEN

The 1929 automobile of Harold Alexander, 348 Vassar avenue, Bradley, was stolen from in front of his home Sunday afternoon, according to a report given Sheriff John Stack.

TINY TOT TELLS OF HER SLAYING

State's Attorney Alban Parker of Windsor, Vt., said a five-year-old boy sitting on the knee of a sheriff, told police how Beverly Ann Page (above), age four, was killed by himself and another boy "just a few years older." The body of the little girl, her jaw bone broken and an iron hoop around her chest, was found in the shallow water of a mill stream. (Associated Press Photo)

PEOTONE CASE PUZZLES WILL COUNTY HEADS

L. Cody, Husband, in Technical Custody of Law.

QUIZ PARENTS

BULLETIN

Joliet, Ill., March 8.—(UP)—State's Attorney James Burke said today he would ask a lie detector test for Louis Cody, husband of nine months, whose wife's body was found Saturday in a shallow, uncovered cistern at her parents' home.

"There are several details which are not clear," Burke said, "I believe a lie detector test might help us out."

He said he would ask Cody to accompany him to the Northwestern laboratories at Chicago for the test.

A theory of accidental death was temporarily discarded as authorities found the cistern opening gave barely enough room for the body to slide through.

Peotone, March 8.—(RN Special)—Mystery still surrounds the death of Mrs. Luella Klemann Cody, 32-year-old bride of but a few months, who was found early Saturday morning at the bottom of a cistern at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Klemann of Green Garden township.

The body was found about 2 o'clock in the morning by her husband Louis, who had just returned home from work at Harvey, and her brother Raymond.

The young husband said later that he and his brother-in-law made a search for his body when they found her bed empty. He expressed the opinion that his wife was going to an outhouse and accidentally fell into the cistern.

Shallow Water
The opening to the cistern was 23 by 16 inches. The water in the cistern was four feet six inches deep and Mrs. Cody was slightly over five feet in height.

On Sunday an autopsy was performed at the Peotone funeral establishment here, after which Dr. Louis Brannon, coroner of Will county, expressed the opinion death was due to asphyxiation due to drowning.

There was a tablespoonful of water in each lung, he said, and the left chambers of the heart were dilated. No injuries were evident except for a slight discoloration over the right pelvic bone.

Authorities Puzzled
Statements of the family pointed to an accidental death. Sheriff Michael J. Breen and State's Attorney James E. Burke were quoted as saying accidental death was practically an impossibility under the circumstances.

"Sitdown Strike" in His Own Automobile

Joliet, Ill., March 8.—(AP)—Frank Peterlin, 30-year-old electrical contractor, began a "sitdown strike" today in his own automobile, bogged in the mud in the middle of May street, on the outskirts.

"I'll sit here for 30 days, if necessary, or until Street Commissioner Sam Shepley comes out here and looks at this street," announced Peterlin.

"I've paid $62 in towing bills in the last seven years, since moving to this street. Now I'm stuck again, and I'm going to stay stuck."

He arranged for his wife to bring him food.

The street, narrow, was blocked by Peterlin's big sedan and police were in a traffic jam. Somebody suggested a traffic ticket, but police decided against it.

4 Gasoline Pumps Wrecked By Motorists Here Sunday

Four gasoline pumps in two filling stations absorbed most of the damages incurred as a result of weekend automobile crashes in the city.

Three of the pumps were wrecked at the Fairgrounds service station operated by Walter Kepner at Indiana avenue and Fair street when Diana Klep, 1251 North Schuyler, Paul Klep, 1251 North Schuyler, avenue, driving west on Fair street, failed to make the turn and careened into the pumps.

Two of them were knocked completely off their base. The accident happened at 4:45 a. m. and Klep was backing from the curb as told police he fell asleep. The right side of his car was damaged.

In the 400 block on North Chicago avenue, autos driven in opposite directions by Howard Bates, 611 North Indiana avenue, and Arthur Conville, route 2, Bourbonnais, were involved in a collision in which the latter smashed into the gasoline pump in front of the Fortin garage, knocking the standard over.

On Sunday evening, vehicles operated by T. H. Schott, 555 West Station street, and Ida LaCost, 270 West Court street, collided near Insurance and Court streets. The latter was backing from the curb as told police he fell asleep. The right side of his car was damaged.

WESTERN COAST PROSECUTOR IN NARROW ESCAPE

Buron Fitts of Los Angeles Wounded by Gunmen.

BLAME STRIKERS

By RONALD W. WAGONER
United Press Staff Correspondent

Los Angeles, March 8.—(UP)—Buron Fitts, caustic Los Angeles district attorney, escaped with his life last night when an assassin's bullet pierced his upraised arm and was deflected from his chest.

The bullet was fired from a car containing three or more men. It crashed through the windshield of the prosecutor's car and tore a channel half the length of his forearm. Several nerves were severed and surgeons feared his arm might be paralyzed. Fitts still limps from a leg wound suffered on a battlefield in France.

The assault occurred in front of the home of Fitts' father in suburban Monrovia about 8:30 o'clock. It was first time in several days he had been separated from his three bodyguards, employed when he began to receive threatening telephone calls. The threats began after Fitts obtained indictments against 345 sitdown strikers at the Douglas Aircraft plant in Santa Monica.

Authorities believed either strike sympathizers or vengeful criminals whom Fitts had prosecuted were involved.

Well Planned Ambuscade
Deputy District Attorney Jack Southard, who took charge of the investigation, said the ambuscade evidently was well planned. He believed one of the assailants had been watching Fitts' home and had signaled his confederates when the prosecutor left his garage unattended.

There was a premonition of trouble when Fitts left his own home, 400 yards from his father's, after a dinner party. The cook was upset over the nervous behavior of the dog and "knew there was something wrong." One of the guests, Jack W. Cushman, had arisen from the dinner table, drawn a shade and remarked: "I feel you are unsafe, Buron. You should have a bodyguard. There are too many tough characters in town because of the strikes."

Fitts said several shots were fired from the darkened little sedan, and all but the bullet went astray. He continued up the driveway to his parents' home, crawled from his car and rushed in the front door. "I've been shot. Call a doctor," he gasped to his mother. The elder Fitts called for an ambulance. The prosecutor lay on a sofa and related:

"I was just driving into the intersection when I noticed a car without lights approaching from the left. Three men were in it, maybe more. It looked like a collision and I jammed on my brakes and brought the car to a dead stop. "Suddenly the other car swerved toward mine. Shots burst from the other car. My windshield was shattered and I felt a bullet enter my arm. The other car raced away without stopping. They probably thought I was dead."

The father, Buff Fitts, said he had noticed a dilapidated car parked in the shadows across the highway but paid no attention to it. Dr. Benjamin Blank, sheriff's surgeon who first examined the wound, said that had not the bullet been deflected by Fitts' arm, which rested high on the steering wheel, it undoubtedly would have pierced his chest.

Bullet Only Close
The copper jacket from the spent bullet was found in the seat of the car. It provided the chief clue.

The investigation today backtracked over Fitts' stormy political career, beginning from the time he took office and had his predecessor, the late Asa Keyes, sent to prison for taking a bribe. He was won nationwide publicity by his crusades against vice and gambling and his handling of Hollywood scandal cases.

In 1934, Fitts was indicted on a perjury charge as the result of his handling of a Hollywood "love market" case. He was acquitted and won a bitter fight for reelection last November.

His recent trouble began when he had the sitdown strikers indicted on forcible entry and detainer charges. Deputy sheriffs who went to serve the warrants at the Douglas plant found the aircraft workers barricaded in the building. Union leaders offered to surrender the men if Fitts would release them on their own recognizance. He refused, forced the men to surrender unconditionally, and had them placed under $1,000 bonds each. Fitts was unable, because of the darkness, to ascertain the license number of the assassins' car and he said he could not identify them. Dr. Ellis Jones, bone specialist, was called to perform an operation on Fitts' arm.

Church News

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 7.

The Golden Text was, "Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen" (Isaiah 43:10).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Thus saith the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands commanding ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded. I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways" (Isaiah 45:11-13 to 22).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Man, made in His likeness, possesses, and reflects God's dominion over all the earth. Man and woman as co-existent and eternal with God forever reflect, in glorified quality, the infinite Father-Mother God" (p. 316).

THE MANUFACTURING CO.
P. F. KROEHLER
President
The entire resources of 10 great Kroehler factories are behind this sale. Nothing has been left undone to bring you the greatest values in quality living room suites we have ever offered.

Instructions were sent to all factories—designers had their orders—production managers got busy—costs were figured down to a minimum—and the results even exceeded our expectations.

Due to steadily increasing costs of fabrics and raw materials, we can offer these suites for a limited time only. It is important that you start your sale immediately and pass these savings along to your customers.

We have maintained the same rigid standard of workmanship in making these new suites that has made the name "Kroehler" famous for more than 40 years.

Success of your sale is a certainty and will create a sensation in your city. You just cannot miss with values like these.

With kindest personal regards to yourself and associates, I remain,
Yours very truly,
